guardian of minor child C.K.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

COUNTY OF CLARK, a political subdivision of the State of Washington;
Sheriff's Deputy SEAN BOYLE; and
Sheriff's Deputy HOLLY DEZUBIRIA,

Defendants.

No. 3:22-cv-05101 KKE

STIPULATION AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file confidential information under seal.

2. “CONFIDENTIAL” MATERIAL

“Confidential” material shall include the following documents and tangible things produced or otherwise exchanged: incident reports, investigative reports, witness statements, criminal history records, medical examiner reports, audio recordings, video recordings, including body-worn video (BWV) footage, relating to the February 20, 2024, officer involved-shooting involving Clark County Sheriff’s Deputy Holly Dezubiria.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material.

However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.

4.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose any confidential material only to:

(a) the receiving party’s counsel of record in this action, as well as

1 employees of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this
2 litigation;

3 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of 4 the receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, unless the 5 parties agree that a particular document or material produced is for Attorney's Eyes Only and 6 is so designated;

7 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary
8 for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound"
9 (Exhibit A);

10 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

11 (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the 12 duplication of confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or 13 imaging service instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties
14 and to immediately return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

15 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 16 reasonably necessary and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be 17 Bound" (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court.
18 Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential
19 material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone
20 except as permitted under this agreement;

21 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 22 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

23 4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing 24 or referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating
25 party, in accordance with Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(A), to determine whether the designating 26 party will remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or 27 whether a motion to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the meet and

1 confer process, the designating party must identify the basis for sealing the specific
 2 confidential information at issue, and the filing party shall include this basis in its motion to 3 seal, along with any objection to sealing the information at issue. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets
 4 forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party
 5 seeks permission from the court to file material under seal. A party who seeks to maintain the 6 confidentiality of its information must satisfy the requirements of Local Civil Rule
 7 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party filing the motion to seal. Failure to satisfy this
 8 requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, in accordance with the strong
 9 presumption of public access to the Court's files.

10 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

11 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each 12 party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement
 13 must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the 14 appropriate standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts
 15 of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other 16 portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not 17 warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

18 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 19 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 20 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary
 21 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

22 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it
 23 designated for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly
 24 notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

25 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 26 agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(b) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 27 ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement

1 must be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

2 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents
3 and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial
4 proceedings), the designating party must affix the word “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page
5 that contains confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page
6 qualifies for protection, the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s)
7 (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

8 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the 9 parties and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or 10 other pretrial proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so 11 designate other testimony after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within 12 fifteen days after receiving the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding,
13 designate portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party 14 desires to protect confidential information at trial, the issue should be addressed during the 15 pre-trial conference.

16 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent 17 place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored
18 the word “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant
19 protection, the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected 20 portion(s).

21 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure
22 to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating
23 party’s right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely 24 correction of a designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that 25 the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

26 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

27 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of

1 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's confidentiality
 2 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic
 3 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right
 4 to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after 5 the original designation is disclosed.

6 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
 7 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding 8 confidential designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion
 9 or in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer
 10 conference with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action.
 11 The certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith
 12 effort to confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

13 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
 14 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under 15 Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden 16 of persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and 17 those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and 18 burdens on other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall 19 continue to maintain the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the 20 challenge.

21 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN 22 OTHER LITIGATION

23 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that 24 compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as 25 "CONFIDENTIAL," that party must:

26 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of 27 the subpoena or court order;

(b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and

(c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree to the entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts and summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate

1 methods of destruction.

2 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all
3 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence,
4 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert
5 work product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

6 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until 7 a designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

8 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.

18 PURSUANT TO STIPULATION, IT IS SO ORDERED.

19 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 502(d), the production of 20 any documents, electronically stored information (ESI) or information, whether inadvertent 21 or otherwise, in this proceeding shall not, for the purposes of this proceeding or any other
22 federal or state proceeding, constitute a waiver by the producing party of any privilege
23 applicable to those documents, including the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product
24 protection, or any other privilege or protection recognized by law. This Order shall be 25 interpreted to provide the maximum protection allowed by Fed. R. Evid. 502(d). The 26 provisions of Fed. R. Evid. 502(b) do not apply. Nothing contained herein is intended to or 27 shall serve to limit a party's right to conduct a review of documents, ESI or information

1 (including metadata) for relevance, responsiveness and/or segregation of privileged and/or 2 protected information before production. Information produced in discovery that is protected
3 as privileged or work product shall be immediately returned to the producing party.
